Dear Parents, Caregivers and members of the Macleay Island community,

My time at Macleay Island State School is sure to be both professionally and personally rewarding given the warm welcome I have received from staff, students, parents, caregivers and community members alike.

Schools are busy places and Semester Two 2016 is no exception. Next Tuesday our P-2 students and staff are off to a production of Snugglepot and Cuddlepie and I am certain will be great ambassadors for Macleay Island State School as they travel to and from Gardens Point Theatre at the Queensland University of Technology in the heart of Brisbane city.

Parent teacher interviews will be held in week 3 of this term and more information regarding these interviews will be forthcoming from individual teachers in the next week.

Tuckshop day is Thursday and the new menu has been distributed to all students and orders must be submitted no later than Wednesday afternoon. The food options sound delicious and I will certainly be looking forward to enjoying a fresh, healthy and homemade lunch each and every Thursday that I will not have to prepare myself.

Schools that are full of energy and enthusiasm for learning are dependent on happy, healthy relationships with all members of the community. I look forward to working with you all to make Macleay Island State School your school of choice.

Yours sincerely
Mrs Glenda Seawright
Principal
